We are very happy to announce that together with our partners, we are launching POW! Drop Out What To Do project. The main purpose of this project is to improve the condition of youth by promoting processes of social inclusion and prevention of youth discomfort, intervening on social and relational factors using sport and to counteract the phenomenon of early sport abandonment amongst youngsters.

CONSORTIUM <<<

For this common goal, our consortium from Romania – Asociatia Ofensiva Tinerilor, Greece - Center for Education and Innovation (InnovED) and Italy – MineVaganti NGO, met in January 17 and 18 in Arad, Romania in order to discuss the project and to start working towards this mutual objectives of this new and exciting journey.

MEET THE PARTNERS!

Together we aim for the same objectives!

WHAT ARE THE OBJECTIVES?

- To promote sport as a means of social inclusion for 200 youngsters, 13-17 year olds at risk of drop out.
- To train 37 instructors on transversal topics concerning sport and teambuilding.
